

Ceylor LAN.

"Persimmon came out like a lion today," laughed Kitty. "We may have to have a quiet run next time out. I was most pleased with his showjumping

One to Note

OLIVER TOWNEND was the man to beat on Saturday, winning the Listers Mercedes-Benz CIC2* with Andrew

Note Worthy 'feels confident' over a tough track to claim the CIC2* for Oliver Townend

Cawthray's Note Worthy, and intermediate section H with Mary Clague's ultra-consistent Power Drive.

"Both horses feel like they are getting better and better, and felt confident over what was a tough enough track," said Oliver.

Note Worthy led from the start and added nothing to his dressage mark of 42.2. His closest challenger was Frank and Jane Inns' French-bred Toledo De Kerker, ridden by Tom McEwen, last year's seven-year-old runner-up at Le Lion d'Angers and a horse highlighted by H&H's sister magazine Eventing (February 2015) as one to watch this season.

Germany's Britta Esser and Escorial146 were third.

Andrew Nicholson dominated advanced section L, notching up a one-two with Deborah Sellar's exciting