

"We came here for education, the result is a bonus," says Oliver Townend as Cooley Rosalent lands silver in the six-year-old championship

Oliver Townend leads the British effort with a silver for his six-year-old, while German riders are dominant in both classes at the prestigious young horse World Championships

60 | HORSE & HOUND 22 October 2020

Oliver was dreaming of further glory with Cooley Rosalent after she fulfilled his expectations.

"She showed she has enough blood for the top level"

OLIVER TOWNEND

"I thought beforehand she was one for the future and she showed she has enough blood for the top level," said Oliver, who's notched three wins with the Valent x Roselier mare this season. "We came here for education; the result is a bonus. It was the biggest test she's had, and when I gave her a squeeze she sped up with her ears pricked." H&H